Right Action is doing the correct thing, at the correct time, & in the correct amount. Innately, all souls are aligned with Right Action, as that is the cosmic flow we are in with Creation.

Due to programming, trauma & wounding here on Earth, we live outside the flow of Gaia, & outside the flow of Creation. Therefore, we have to re-learn what Right Action is & how we implement it in our daily lives.

Right Action is:

- Balance
- Flow
- Service to Others
- Love Expressing Itself

"What would love do now?"

RIGHT ACTION

When we are in "wrong action", this does not mean we are bad, as the labels of good & bad/ right/wrong are part of duality. However, we must identify what is right action versus wrong action.

Wrong Action can take on many forms, but it ultimately lies in when we, or our children, are acting out of programming versus out of love.

Right action is always based in love & Universal Law. This is what Divinity is.

All children learn by example, the same way adults learned by example from their parents.

Our dream is to usher in the next wave of Rainbow Children who are in Right Action.

RIGHT ACTION

Examples of Right Action:

- Following through on tasks
- Cleaning up after ourselves & others
- Offering to help or be in service to another
- Balancing the flow of BEing versus DOing
 - Being in integrity with ourselves
- Calling out dysfunction with compassion
 - Leading by example

Examples of Wrong Action

- Leaving a task unfinished
- Leaving messes for others to clean up
- Caring only about ourselves & not about others
 - Taking energy from others
- Allowing others to be in dysfunction
 - Being out of integrity with our soul
- Leading through words not example

DIVINE TRAITS

The Divine Traits are the traits of ALL souls as the core of who they are, the True Self.

All beings on Earth are God with God, & we are all divine on a soul level.

The Divine Traits are our guide to leading by example, to being the greatest & grandest version of ourselves, & to be a fully healed being.

All parents, teachers, & children have soul contracts to work together to dissolve the dysfunctional programmings that have been inherited from the DNA, & to return ourselves and our children to our divine state.

Each divine trait carries a frequency of the God spark, & the more divinity we embody, the more God spark we bring into this beautiful world.

DIVINE TRAITS

ACCOUNTABILITY

Take full accountability for all experiences, whether "good" or "bad". We set the example of divine accountability which shows grace, acceptance, reflection & gratitude for our lessons and blessings. This important for teaching children how to take accountability rather than blame.

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

Loving without conditions means without blame, projections, expectations, assumptions, or control. Unconditional love is true freedom & does not expect anything in return, nor does it have any "rules."

GRATITUDE

Gratitude is the energy of being grateful for all lessons & blessings and true appreciation for all that we have and experience. Entitlement is feeling like we are owed something from another, and can often present in children feeling entitled to energy or things.

DIVINE TRAITS

WORTHINESS

In order to fully give & receive love, we must be able to fully love ourselves! Worthiness is not entitlement, but a knowing that we are worthy of all that love is, & we are all worthy of a grand & beautiful life and it does not have to be earned or bought.

COURAGE

When passion & willpower are combined, we get courage. Courage is following our hearts, staying true to who we are, & speaking our truth at all times. When we teach children courage, we are teaching them to choose love over fear.

NURTURING

True nurturing is presence & being in the heart with yourself and all others. Physical affection such as hugs & kisses are also beautiful expressions of nurturing. When we teach our children how to be nurturing, we are teaching them how to show up & care for others and to also care for themselves.

DIVINE TRAITS

ORGANIC

The EGO programming is all about "trying", struggling, & working off linear and robotic habits & behaviors. Children are naturally organic & parents/teachers must re-learn how to be organic themselves. Being organic is being fully present in each moment, unrestricted by time, and what "should" happen in any moment.

COMPASSION

Compassion is key for all beings on the planet. Compassion is treating ourselves & others with kindness and with understanding. However, the other aspect of compassion that is often forgotten, is learning how to call things out without enabling or beating around the bush. Speaking the whole truth, even if it upsets or triggers another, is compassion.

EMPATHY

Empathy is based on oneness, and understanding that when one experiences pain & suffering, all experience it. To hold empathy is to be able to feel another's emotions, while also understanding that no one is a victim, & we all have agreed to our roles.

DIVINE TRAITS

CONSISTENCY

Consistency is a key trait for all adults & children. When we are consistent, we embody higher levels of divinity.

This teaches us follow through, reliability, & inner strength.

Consistency is best taught through sticking to things we say we are going to do, & sticking to things that are important for us such as self-love disciplines.

INTEGRITY

Integrity is being in alignment with our soul, Universal Law, & Right Action. True integrity is when we honor our intuition, guidance & heart no matter what. We do what we say we are going to do, and we stay true to ourselves. We do not sell ourselves short based on external judgements or control.

TOLERANCE

Tolerance is the divine trait of accepting, embracing, & allowing. We are tolerant of others or situations which we may find triggering, challenging, or we dislike. Having tolerance for others no matter their state of consciousness or their programmings, shows true love & acceptance.

DIVINE TRAITS

JOY

Joy is our natural state as human beings! True joy comes from within and from our connection. Children are naturally in joy, but will mirror adult's pain & suffering. Our roles are to cultivate joy within & teach our children to be responsible for their own internal joy, rather than relying on external circumstances.

PURE THOUGHT

Pure thought is receiving only divine thoughts rather than EGO thoughts. Any thought that does not bring joy, inspiration, innovation, or healing, is an EGO thought. When we stay in pure thought, we connect with children on a much deeper level, as they naturally are in pure thought.

RECEPTIVE

Receptivity is being open to whatever comes our way in life. Adults often create walls & barriers due to trauma or wounding which makes them resistant to life, rather than receptive. We must lead by example & show our children that no matter what comes our way in life, its all a lesson or a blessing.

DIVINE TRAITS

PATIENCE

Patience is the divine trait of trusting in divine timing! We often are very impatient and try to rush or force things that are not yet ready to happen. We must always trust in our flow & the natural divine timing of Gaia. There is beauty in patience, as we allow the Divine to do its work.

TRANSPARENCY

Transparency is key, especially when working with children. Being transparent means being vulnerable, open & honest in all ways. When adults lack transparency, they teach children how to be secretive, how to hide things, or manipulate. Children gravitate towards & appreciate transparency, because it encourages trust.

SELF-LOVE

Self-love is the most important divine trait! We cannot love others or anything outside of us until we can fully love ourselves. Most parents will have to re-learn self-love, as we have been taught to put our own needs last and put everyone else above us. Children will then mirror this behavior when they grow up.

DIVINE TRAITS

BEAUTY

Beauty is not an external trait, but an internal one. When we embody beauty, we are embodying sacredness of life.

We honor Nature & Gaia for all her beauty & we thus create beauty all around is, from within. Beauty comes from the heart, not from the external.

KINDNESS

Kindness can heal all things. Showing kindness to ourselves, others, animals, etc., spreads love like wildfire. Children are naturally kind, they only learn otherwise from adults who display cruelty or meanness. Kindness does not mean allowing others to hurt us, it simply means we "kill em with kindness."

CHILD-LIKE WONDER

Children are naturally in a state of joy & wonder! Everything is exciting & interesting to children. As adults, we have been stripped of our child-like wonder so we must re-learn how to see the world through the eyes of a child once again, by embracing our own innocence.

DIVINE TRAITS

BRILLIANCE

Brilliance is a natural trait of all souls! Our own brilliance is encoded in our unique soul blueprint. When we tap into & align with our unique brilliance, we naturally allow it to shine! We are here to BE who we are.

PURITY

Purity has been confused with 3D interpretations. True purity means our internal state is pure & free of toxic emotions, thoughts & behaviors. We are pure vessels of love that Source can express through! We hold no judgments of ourselves or others & we hold this inner state of purity.

WISDOM

Wisdom can only be learned through experience! In 3D, we are taught that wisdom comes from a book, or learned from someone teaching us. Yet, true wisdom comes from going through the experience. As parents and teachers, we must allow children to have experiences and to learn from them, rather than than seeking to have them avoid making "mistakes".

DIVINE TRAITS

RESPONSIVE

Responsiveness is the divine trait versus the EGO trait of reacting. When we react, we are coming from a place of triggers or wounds. When we respond, we are coming from a place of love & healing. When we embody responsiveness, we are teaching divine communication.

PERSEVERANCE

Perseverance is a divine trait that teaches how to keep going & not to give up. Too often we were taught to quit when things got hard, or when we received criticism or pushback. The soul never quits & is able to persevere through all challenges with grace.

INNER STRENGTH

Inner strength is a divine quality to each children, as they learn how to be sovereign divine beings. To teach them that inner strength comes from within, from our own divine empowerment and not from any external source.

DIVINE TRAITS

ABUNDANT

True abundance comes from within, not from the external. In 3D we were taught how to work hard & follow the rules in order to earn abundance. When we cultivate an inner abundance, we focus on the abundance of our joy, laughter, Spirit, & gratitude.

DIVINE INTUITION

All beings have divine intuition, it is simply a question of are we listening to our intuition? Children naturally have intuition and we only become disconnected from it because of societal programming which wants us to rely on linear thinking, logic & facts. By embodying intuition, & allowing yourself to follow that intuition, we encourage our children to follow theirs as well.

DIVINE INTELLIGENCE

Divine intelligence cannot be taught, it can only be embraced. Divine intelligence comes from the Right Brain which is based in intuition, inspiration, creativity, & ingenuity. When we follow this genius, we embody divine intelligence.

DIVINE TRAITS

TENACITY

Tenacity is a divine trait to teach children which encourages their inner warrior to come through. Tenacity gives us the strength and the oomph to keep going until we achieve our goal or dream. Tenacity comes from believing in ourselves, against all odds.

SELFLESSNESS

Selflessness does not mean we abandon our own self-love or we fail to honor ourselves. It means we are dedicated to serving love & the greater good. We are selfless in our giving of love & our giving of support to others. In a world of selfishness, the selfless ones will inspire all others.

PASSION

Passion is our divine creative spark being expressed! Passion is not anger, it is a pure frequency that comes through when our hearts are lit up & our creative spark is expressed. We must encourage children to express their passion & follow their passions, rather than repress or hide them.

DIVINE TRAITS

WILLPOWER

Divine willpower is the embodiment of Divine Will, not self-will. In 3D, we were taught how to have self-will, which often results in EGO driven will that forces itself upon others. Divine willpower is Source flowing through us, giving us the strength to execute what we are passionate about.

HONOR

Honor is the acknowledgement of the sacredness within all things, the God within all others. When we embody honor, we treat ourselves as sacred, we treat others as sacred, & we treat all of Nature as sacred. We honor ourselves fully no matter what emotion or feeling we are experiencing.

TRUTH

Truth is the most divine frequency one can embody, along with unconditional love. Truth is crucial to our divinity, and all parents/teachers must be examples of full, whole truth. Children must also be honored for expressing their truth, while still holding boundaries with them. Truth heals, dishonesty corrupts.

FAITH

Faith is the utmost trust in love, Source, & the divine. EGO's lack faith, therefore they lack trust. There are also those who have faith, but in something outside themselves.

True faith is faith in oneself first, faith in the love and divinity within you. We then can hold true faith in Source & in all things.

TRUST

Trust is a foundational trait of all divine beings. As adults, we lose our trust as we grow up because others lie or fail to do what they say they are going to do. Children naturally trust & we must encourage them to continue trusting, while also trusting in themselves & teaching them divine discernment.

EMPOWERMENT

Empowerment comes from within! Our true power lies at our core as we are fractals of Source. When we are empowered, we believe in ourselves & we invest in ourselves. We do not allow others to control us or power over us & we equally do not control or power over others.

DIVINE TRAITS

GRACE

Grace comes with wisdom. As adults, we learn to embody grace through our many trials and experiences. When we lack grace, we complain & we hold bitterness. By showing children the art of grace, we teach them to flow through life with the trust & knowing that all experiences are for our own growth & expansion.

LAUGHTER

Laughter is the best medicine! Divine beings are always laughing because life is filled with joy & wonder.

When in doubt, we laugh! Children love to laugh & play and as adults, we simply must allow ourselves the pleasure.

CHARITY

Charity is the gift of giving. We do not give because we have to or because we want to be seen as a "good person." We give because through giving, we too receive a gift. The gift of love & bringing others joy. Children are naturally giving but often will reflect programmings of not wanting to share or being attached to things. We must set the example of the beauty of giving.

DIVINE TRAITS

HUMILITY

Humility comes with grace. When we have faced & weathered challenging storms we learn the art of humility. Children naturally hold this, and as adults, we encourage & foster the art of humility as we accept grace through every life experience. Arrogance is only taught from a place of wounding.

DIVINE PERCEPTION

Divine perception is the art of seeing the higher perspective in all things. This does not mean we are in denial or ignorance of things in our reality that are not so nice, but we choose to look at the higher perspective in all situations as there is always a lesson or a blessing.

FULL FEELING

Full feeling is our natural state. As adults, our feeling centers become shut down because we are holding onto so much pain & trauma the feeling centers shut off. Children are already in full feeling, so by allowing our feeling centers to come online again, we connect with them on a deeper level.

DIVINE TRAITS

GENUINE

Being genuine & authentic is our natural state. Children are always genuine because they know no other way to be!

It is only as adults, we lose our authenticity because we wear so many masks in order to function in the 3D world.

Getting back in tune with our genuine selves inspires others to do the same.

HEART-CENTERED

When we are heart-centered, no matter what challenge, trigger, or emotion comes up, we are able to return to our hearts. We take moments to process, to feel, to tune into our intuition & guidance. We then respond with love.

NON-ATTACHED

Non attachment is true joy. When we are non attached, we release our control over the "should be" and "could be", and instead we allow what will be. Children often mirror the attachment levels of their parents. For instance: if a child is co-dependent on the parent, overly attached to their toys or possessions, they are mirroring the parents.

DIVINE TRAITS

PROACTIVE

Being proactive means we are taking inspired action! In 3D, we focus on "productivity" which is different than being proactive. When we have a divine thought, or an inspired idea, we take inspired action through being proactive, rather than procrastinating or waiting until some later time. This keeps us in the divine flow.

HUMBLE

Being humble does not mean we deny our own grandness, but we have nothing to prove to others nor are we in competition with others. We are humble within our own light & grandness and simply shine.

THE 4 AGREEMENTS

Be Impeccable With Your Word

Don't Take Anything Personally

Don't Make Assumptions

Always Do Your Best

The 4 Agreements by Don Miguel Ruiz are a wonderful reference for life.

When we implement these 4 agreements into our daily lives, & into our service to love, we become impeccable divine beings.

These agreements are foundational teachings for all parents, teachers & children

THE RIGHT V LEFT BRAIN

Our natural state as divine beings is having full use of our brain-a wholeistic brain. Our right brain is our feminine side of the brain, which connects to Source, higher thought, creative genius, inspiration & intuition.

Our left brain is the masculine brain, which analyzes & sorts through all of the information coming in through the right brain, and it decides what is useful & what is to be acted upon.

THE RIGHT V LEFT

BRAIN

Due to toxins & programmings, our right brain begins to shut down after childhood. We are slowly stripped of our creativity & instead are forced into left brain only thinking.

This causes us to be stuck in a left brain loops of logic, analyzation, linear thinking, & closed mindedness. It is only when the right brain & left brain are working together, in unity, do we have access to our full genius & divine intelligence.

3D schooling teaches ONLY left brain thinking. Children are taught memorization, regurgitation, testing, & logical thinking. This slowly shuts down their right brain & leads to many issues that adults experience such as fear, anxiety, depression, disconnection, etc.

The Crystal Schools focus 90% on right brain learning and 10% on left brain learning. Children's right brains are given time to fully develop through play, creativity, joy, unity, expression & experience.
